and supporting exhibits thereto; and the Court having jurisdiction to consider the Nineteenth Omnibus Objection and to grant the relief requested therein pursuant to Section 306(a) of PROMESA; and venue being proper pursuant to Section 307(a) of PROMESA; and due and proper notice of the Nineteenth Omnibus Objection having been provided to those parties identified therein, and no other or further notice being required; and each of the claims identified in Exhibit A to the Nineteenth Omnibus Objection being related to purported ownership interest in mutual fund(s) that, even assuming the claimants have standing to assert the claims, would be partially duplicative of a Master Proof of Claim and partially deficient by failing to comply with the applicable rules and the Bar Date Orders by not providing a basis for a portion of the claim, such that COFINA cannot determine the validity of this portion claim; and, upon the record of the hearing held on the Nineteenth Omnibus Objection on March 13, 2019, and the rulings made therein, the Court having determined that the relief sought in the Nineteenth Omnibus Objection is in the best interest of COFINA, its creditors, and all the parties in interest; and the Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Nineteenth Omnibus Objection establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor, it is hereby

ORDERED that the Nineteenth Omnibus Objection is GRANTED as set forth herein; and it is further

ORDERED that the claims listed on Exhibit A to the Nineteenth Omnibus Objection are hereby disallowed in their entirety; and it is further ORDERED that this Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, or enforcement of this Order.

SO ORDERED.
